Beat the bully

A and B!
Give me some food!

Big Dee, stop!
Being a bully is nothing to be proud of.

TEASING, making up nicknames, shouting... Have you seen these things at school?

Doing these things is called bullying. Big Dee sometimes bullies A and B. He likes teasing them and forcing them to do things for him. But he has changed! Big Dee, A, B and Stevie have just learnt a lesson about bullying at school. Read on to see what they have discovered.

Editor's Note

Big Dee can be a big bully sometimes. Bullies are cowards who like to pick on small kids like A and B, but when faced with someone tough, like Rose, they cry like babies. G02 has more tips on dealing with bullies. Big Dee should learn how to take care of a pet because experts say it will make you more caring. Unfortunately, dogs are not allowed on estates. Read Rose's advice on G09 on what to do if you cannot keep a dog.

Janice

We do not like Big Dee's nicknames. We do not want to do his homework either. But we cannot say no to him! Oh no... what can we do?

Big meanie

Bullying is doing something hurtful and making others feel sad and frightened. For example, one day after school...

Hey puny starfish! Do not leave the classroom yet! Stay and finish my homework, or I will not let you join our football match tomorrow!

Speak up to help

If you see bullying...

do not walk away and pretend that nothing happened:

tell teachers or your parents about it:

I have not seen anything...

Stevie saw us but he ignored us. We are helpless now...

Mr Octo! Help! Big Dee is bullying A and B...

Thank you Stevie! Help us please, Mr Octo!

I will never make my friends sad again!

Big Dee has learnt that bullying is bad. He apologised to A and B. Find the correct shadow of the happy trio.
