Work hard, play hard

Monday
LS Life

SCHOOL started two weeks ago! How do you like it? The Goodies Family are having lots of fun and are enjoying it very much so far. Mr Octo is happy to see some hardworking students making progress, but is still very frustrated with Big Dee – he loves talking too much during every lesson. Let us join them today to see what school life is like in Oceanland.

Editor's Note

We have two themes on Monday and Wednesday issues this year. The one you are reading is 'LS Life'; we offer you some must-know information. For example, you will see how mooncakes have evolved and learn something about sushi. If you are familiar with Chinese idioms, read G05 and see how you like them told in a modern version!

What you need

- dice
- a token for each player

How to play

1. Decide who goes first.
2. Take turns to throw the dice and move your token along the board.
3. Follow what it says on each square (if you are at the base of a ladder, climb up; if you are at the head of a snake, slide down the snake).
4. The first player to land on the 25th square wins the game!

Did you know?

1. Snakes and Ladders is an ancient Indian board game.
2. The aim is to educate players on the effects of doing good deeds and bad deeds.
3. The ladders represent virtues such as kindness, faith and humility.
4. The snakes represent bad things such as selfishness, laziness and anger.
