

Indoor bowling

This is a fun game you can play at home. Firstly, find six empty bottles and fill them up with water; these will be the bowling pins. Put the bottles in a triangle formation, just like bowling pins. Use a medium-sized ball – such as a volleyball – as the bowling ball and then bowl!

Everyone, watch me make a strike!

Keep it up

Hot Potato is the perfect game to play at home without any equipment. All you have to do is crumple a sheet of paper to make a ball, stand in a circle with your friends and toss the ball into the air. Try to keep it up as long as possible. You can kick or hit the ball.

Let me hit the ball!

Charades

This is an actions game that will make you laugh. Simply choose a category, such as animals, and act out what the animal would do. Your friends have to guess which animal you are. You and your friends will be in fits of laughter by the end.

The category is jobs! Can you guess what job I have?

Umm, an astronaut?

A scientist?

Hot lava

The floor is lava. If you touch the lava you 'die'. So grab your friends and jump onto your couch, use cushions as stepping stones, or pretend you are a pirate surfing the lava wave on a chair ... just make sure you never touch the floor. This game is as fun as going to the park!

Oh no, no more chairs for me to stand on!

Pony must be good at this game. You are such a good artist!

Pictionary

In Pictionary, you must draw pictures to describe a movie to your friends. No words allowed! As you draw, your friends will guess what movie it is. All you need is a pen and paper!

Thank you, Coco!
